Removal of Lokpal or the
Up-Lokpal

Provided that the inquiry required to be held under clause (2) of the said Article before such removal shall only be held by a person appointed by the Governor being a person who is or has been a Judge of the Supreme Court or a Chief Justice or Judge of the High Court.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Governor shall not remove the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal unless an address by the State Legislature supported by a majority of the total membership of the House and a majority of not less than two third of the members of the House present and voting, has been presented to the Governor in the same sessions for such removal.

8. (1) The Government shall, in consultation with the Lokpal, appoint Secretaries with the Lokpal as well as with the Up-Lokpal and such other officers and employees, as may be prescribed to assist them in the discharge of their functions (including verification and enquiries in respect of complaints) under this Act.; and

Lokpal

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal, as the case may be, may for the purpose of dealing with any complaints, or any classes of complaints, secure the services of any officer or employees or investigating agency of the Central Government or State Government with the concurrence of that Government.

(3) The terms and conditions of service of the officers and employees referred to in sub-section (1) and of the officers, employees, agencies and persons referred to in sub-section (2) (including such special conditions as may be considered necessary for enabling them to act without fear in the discharge of their functions) shall be as may be prescribed by the Government in consultation with the Lokpal.

JURISDICTION AND PROCEDURE IN RESPECT OF INQUIRIES

Jurisdiction of Lokpal or the
Up-Lokpal

9. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal may inquire into any matter involved in, or arising from, or connected with any allegation of misconduct against public man made in a complaint under this Act.

(2) The onus to prove the allegation shall be on the complainant but the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal may collect evidence and may call upon the person against whom a complaint is made to produce evidence.

[(3)*****]

10. (1) The Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal shall enquire into an allegation of misconduct against a public man within five years from the date of occurrence of that misconduct.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3), the complaints filed under the provisions of the Punjab Lokpal Act, 1995 (Punjab Act 9 of 1995) shall also be enquired into by the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal.

(3) The Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal shall not enquire into any matter which has been referred for enquiry under the Commission of Inquiry Act, 1952 on his recommendations or with his prior concurrence.

(4) The Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal shall not enquire into any complaint suo-moto.

11. (1) Any person other than a public servant may make a complaint under this Act to the Lokpal.

Complaints

(4) The complainant shall deposit in such manner and with such authority or agency as may be prescribed a sum of [one thousand rupees] as fee.

12. (1) If the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal is satisfied after considering a complaint and after making such verification, as he deems appropriate--

Preliminary scrutiny of complaints
by Lokpal or the Up-
Lokpal

- (a) that he cannot make any inquiry in respect of the complaint by reason of the provisions of [sub-section (3) of section 10]; or
- (b) that the complaint is not made within the period as specified in sub-section (1) of section 10 and that there is no sufficient cause for entertaining the complaint; or

- (c) that the complaint is frivolous or vexatious or is not made in good faith; or
- (d) that there are no sufficient grounds for inquiring into the complaint;

the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal shall dismiss the complaint after recording his reasons thereof and communicate the same to the complainant and to the competent authority concerned.

(2) The procedure for verification in respect of a complaint under sub-section (1) shall be such, as the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal may deem appropriate in the circumstances of the case and in particular the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal may, if he deems it necessary to do so, call for the comments of the public man concerned.

(3) Any order affecting the rights of the person complained against, shall be a speaking order.

13.(1) If, after the consideration and verification under section 12 in respect of a complaint the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal proposes to conduct an inquiry, he, --

Procedure in respect of inquiries

- (a) shall forthwith forward a copy of the complaint to the competent authority;
- (b) may make such orders as to the safe custody of documents relevant to the enquiry as he deems fit;
- (c) shall at such time as he considers appropriate, forward a copy of the complaint to the public man concerned and afford him an opportunity to represent his case.

(2) Every such inquiry shall be conducted in camera.

(3) Save as aforesaid the procedure for conducting any such inquiry shall be such as the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal may consider appropriate in the circumstances of the case keeping in view the rules of natural justice as enunciated by the Supreme Court of India and the High Court. The person against whom a complaint has been made shall not be compelled to be witness against himself.

14. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, for the purpose of any enquiry including the verification under section 12, the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal ---

Evidence

- (a) may require any public servant or any other person, who, in his opinion is able to furnish information or produce documents relevant to such inquiry, to furnish any such information or produce any such document;
- (b) shall have all the powers of a civil court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, only in respect of the following matters, namely:-
  - (i) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
  - (ii) requiring the discovery and production of any document;
  - (iii) receiving evidence on affidavits;
  - (iv) requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any court or office;
  - (v) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses; and
  - (vi) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(2) A proceeding before the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding under the meaning of section 193 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (4) ---

- (a) no obligation to maintain secrecy or other restriction upon the disclosure of information obtained by or furnished to the Government or any public servant whether imposed by any enactment or by any provision of law whatever, shall apply to disclosure of information for the purposes of any inquiry (including the verification under section 12) under this Act; and
- (b) the Government or any public servant shall not be entitled, in relation to any verification or inquiry, to any such privilege in respect of the production of documents or the giving of evidence as is allowed by any enactment or by any provision whatsoever in legal proceedings.

(4) No person shall be required or authorised by virtue of this Act to furnish any information or answer any such question or produce so much of any document ---

- (a) as might prejudice the security of the State or the defence or international relations of India (including India's relations with the Government of any other country or with any international organisation), or the investigation or detection of crime; or
- (b) as might involve the disclosure of proceeding of the Council of Ministers or of any Committee thereof, and for the purpose of this sub-section, a certificate issued by a Secretary to the Government certifying that any information, answer or portion of a document, is of the nature specified in clause (a) or clause (b) shall be binding and conclusive.

Provided that the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal may require any information or answer or portion of document in respect of which a certificate is issued under this sub-section to the effect that it is of the nature as specified in clause (b) to be disclosed to him in private for scrutiny and if on such scrutiny the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal is satisfied that such certificate ought not to have been issued, he shall declare the certificate to be of no effect.

15. (1) If the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal has reason to believe that any document which, in his opinion, will be useful for or relevant to, any inquiry under the Act is secreted in any place he may, with the prior approval of the Governor authorise any officer subordinate to him or any officer or any investigating agency referred to in sub-section (2) of section 8, to search for and to seize such documents.

(2) If the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal is satisfied that any document seized under sub-section (1), would be evidence for the purpose of any inquiry under this Act and that it would be necessary to retain that document in his custody, he may so retain the said document till the completion of such inquiry:

Provided that where such document is seized before the commencement of such inquiry, the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal shall return the document before the expiration of a period of one year from the date on which it is seized unless such inquiry has been commenced before such expiration.

Explanation.--For the purposes of this sub-section an inquiry in respect of a complaint--

- (a) shall be deemed to have commenced on the date on which the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal forwards a copy of the complaint to the competent authority under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 13.

- (b) shall be deemed to have been completed on the date on which the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal closes the case under section 16.
- (3) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, relating to searches shall, so far as may be, apply to searches under this section subject to the modification that sub-section (6) of section 165 of the said Code, shall have effect as if for the word "magistrate" wherever it occurs, the words "Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal or any officer authorised by him" were substituted.

16(1) If, after inquiry in respect of a complaint, the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal is satisfied,-

Reports

- (a) That no allegation made in the complaint has been substantiated either wholly or partly, he shall close the case and intimate the complainant, the public man and the competent authority accordingly; or
- (b) That all or any of the allegations made in the complaint have or has been substantiated either wholly or partly he shall by report in writing communicate his findings and recommendations to the competent authority and intimate the complainant and the public man concerned about his having made the report.

(2) The competent authority shall examine the report forwarded to it under clause (b) of sub-section (1) and communicate to the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal, within three months, of the date of receipt of the report, the action taken or proposed to be taken on the basis of the report.

(3) If, the Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal is satisfied with the action taken or proposed to be taken on the basis of his report under clause (b) of sub-section (1), he shall close the case and intimate the complainant, the public man and the competent authority accordingly, but where he is not so satisfied and if, he considers that the case so deserves, he may make a special report for reviewing decision of the Governor.

(4) The Lokpal or the Up-Lokpal shall present annually to the Governor a consolidated report on the administration of this Act.

(5) As soon as may be, after and in any case not later than ninety days from the receipt of a special report under sub-section (3), or the annual report under sub-section (4), the Governor shall cause the same together with an extraordinary memorandum to be laid before, the State Legislature.

Explanation.- In computing the period of ninety days referred to in this sub-section, any period during which the State Legislature is not in session, shall be excluded.
