27A. Constitution of electoral colleges for the filling of seats in the Council of States allotted to Part C States.—(1) For the purpose of filling any seat or seats in the Council of States allotted to any Part C State or group of such States in the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution there shall be an electoral college for each such State or group of States:

Provided that for the purpose of filling the seat allotted to the States of Ajmer and Coorg there shall be an electoral college only for the State of Ajmer:

Provided further that for the purpose of filling the seat allotted to the States of Manipur and Tripura there shall be an electoral college for each of the said States.

(2) The electoral college for each State or group of States specified in the first column of the Fifth Schedule shall consist of the number of members specified in the second column thereof opposite to that State or group of States to be chosen by direct election.

- (3) The electoral college first constituted under this Act for any State or group of States so specified shall be reconstituted by a fresh election every time when there is a general election held in that State or group of States for the purpose of election of members to the House of the People and on every such reconstitution the electoral college for that State or group of States functioning immediately before such reconstitution shall be deemed to be dissolved and the electoral college so reconstituted shall be the electoral college for such State or group of States, as the case may be, for the purposes of this Act.
- (4) Any casual vacancy in the seat of a member of an electoral college for any such State or group of States as is referred to in subsection (2) shall be filled by election held in the constituency concerned in the manner in which the election of that member to such seat was sheld.
 - (5) The electoral college for the State of Delhi shall consist of-
 - (a) the members of the House of the People representing that State;
 - (b) the non-official members of the Advisory Council of the Chief Commissioner of Delhi; and
 - (c) the non-official members of every cantonment board, district board, municipal committee and notified area committee within that State.
- 27B. Council of States constituencies.—For the purpose of election of members to the electoral college for any State or group of States specified in the first column of the Fifth Schedule there shall be the constituencies provided by order under section 27C and no other constituencies.
- 27C. Delimitation of Council of States constituencies.—As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the President shall by order determine—
 - (a) the constituencies into which each State or group of States specified in the first column of the Fifth Schedule shall be divided for the purpose of election of members to the electoral college for such State or group of States;
 - (b) the extent of each constituency; and
 - (c) the number of seats allotted to each constituency.
- 27D. Power to alter or amend orders.—The President may, from time to time, after consulting the Election Commission, by order, alter or amend any order made by him under section 27C.
- 27E. Procedure as to orders delimiting constituencies.—(1) The Election Commission shall,—
 - (a) in consultation with the Advisory Committee set up under sub-section (1) of section 13 in respect of each Part C State specified in the first column of the Fifth Schedule, other than Bilaspur and Himachal Pradesh, formulate proposals as to the delimitation of constituencies in that State under section 27C, and
 - (b) in consultation with the Advisory Committee set up under the said sub-section in respect of Himachal Pradesh, formulate proposals as to the delimitation of constituencies in the States of Bilaspur and Himachal Pradesh under section 27C, and submit the proposals to the President for making the order under the said section 27G.

- (2) Every order made under section 27C shall be laid before Parliament as soon as may be after it is made and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make on a motion made within twenty days from the date on which the order is so laid.
- 27F. Electoral rolls for Council of States constituencies.—(1) For the purpose of election of members to the electoral college for any State or group of States specified in the first column of the Fifth Schedule there shall be an electoral roll for every Council of States constituency in that State or group of States.
- (2) So much of the roll or rolls for any Parliamentary constituency or constituencies for the time being in force under Part III as relate to the areas comprised within a Council of States constituency shall be deemed to be the electoral roll for that Council of States constituency.
- 27G. Termination of membership of electoral college for certain disqualifications.—If a person who is a member of an electoral college becomes subject to any disqualification for membership of Parliament under the provisions of any law relating to corrupt and illegal practices and other offences in connection with elections to Parliament, he shall thereupon cease to be such member of the electoral college.
- 27H. Manner of filling of seats in the Council of States allotted to Part C States.—Save as otherwise provided in section 27I the seat or seats in the Council of States allotted to any Part C State or group of such States in the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution shall be filled by a person or persons elected by the members of the electoral college for such State or group of States in accordance with the system of proportional representation by means of the single transferable vote.
- 27I. Special provisions for the filling of the seats in the Council of States allotted to the States of Ajmer and Coorg and the States of Manipur and Tripura.—(1) The seat in the Council of States allotted to the States of Ajmer and Coorg in the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution shall be filled by a person elected by the members of the electoral college for the State of Ajmer and by the elected members of the Coorg Legislative Council in rotation, that is to say, at the first general election and at every second subsequent biennial election the said seat shall be filled by a person elected by the members of the electoral college for the State of Ajmer and at the first biennial election and at every third subsequent biennial election the said seat shall be filled by a person elected by the elected members of the Coorg Legislative Council.
- (2) The seat in the Council of States allotted to the States of Manipur and Tripura in the said Schedule shall be filled by a person elected by the members of the electoral college for the State of Tripura and by the members of the electoral college for the State of Manipur in rotation, that is to say, at the first general election and at every second subsequent biennial election the said seat shall be filled by a person elected by the members of the electoral college for the State of Tripura and at the first biennial election and at every third subsequent biennial election the said seat shall be filled by a person elected by the members of the electoral college for the State of Manipur.

- (3) The casual vacancy in the seat allotted to the States of Ajmer and Coorg or to the States of Manipur and Tripura shall be filled by election in the State in which the election to fill the seat was held at the last preceding general or biennial election, as the case may be.
- (4) Every election held under sub-section (1), sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) shall be held in accordance with the system of proportional representation by means of the single transferable vote.
- 27J. Power of electoral colleges or the Coorg Legislative Council to elect notwithstanding vacancies therein.—No election by the members of an electoral college or the elected members of the Coorg Legislative Council under this Act shall be called in question on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in the membership of such college or Council, as the case may be.
- 27K. Replacement of electoral colleges by bodies created under article 240 to function as legislatures.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this Part—
- (a) if a body is created by Parliament by law under article 240 for any of the States specified in the first column of the Fifth Schedule, other than Bilaspur and Himachal Pradesh, to function as a legislature for that State, then after such body has been constituted it shall not be necessary to constitute or reconstitute any electoral college for that State and on the constitution of such body any electoral college for the time being functioning for such State shall be deemed to be dissolved, and section 27H or section 27I, as the case may be, shall in its application to that State have effect as if for any reference to the electoral college for such State in that section there were substituted a reference to the body so created for such State;
 - (b) if any such body as aforesaid is so created for each of the States of Bilaspur and Himachal Pradesh, then after both such bodies have been constituted, it shall not be necessary to constitute or reconstitute any electoral college for those States and on the constitution of both such bodies any electoral college for the time being functioning for those States shall be deemed to be dissolved, and section 27H shall, in its application to that group of States, have effect as if for the reference to the electoral college for the said group of States in that section there were substituted a reference to the bodies so created for those States; and
 - (c) if any such body as aforesaid is so created for the State of Coorg, then on the constitution of such body section 27I shall, in its application to that State, have effect as if for any reference to the Coorg Legislative Council in that section there were substituted a reference to the body so created for such State."

- 6 Representation of the People (Amendment) | ACT LXXIII OF 1950]
- 9. Amendment of section 28, Act XIIII of 1950.—In clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 28 of the said Act, the words "in the constituencies to which they relate" shall be omitted.
- 10. Addition of new Fifth Schedule to Act XLIII of 1950.—After the Fourth Schedule to the said Act, the following Schedule shall be added, namely:—
