3. Carlo As it is imperative for one afficient functioning of parilyment notion Proposal Var of parastry control to a 3-day of all 182, 18.2 should be juriously determined with the atmost dispatch;

the section of the property of the said purpose to establish adultional THE SPECIAL COURTS ACT, 1979

Axi samuras it is expedient in make dome procedural charges whorsky adt to that no command out to notion acres, hold out ut cook out in a conot seen ab drive reported No. 22 of 1979 all of the order

To be seemed in a first seasont on the Thermon Year of the Reyner be six

[16th May, 1979.]

1 (1) I was not need to called the Special Courts Act 1874.

1 dans doud wa

An Act to provide for the speedy trial of afcertain class of offences inibil

MODE

WHEREAS Commissions of Inquiry appointed under the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952 have rendered reports disclosing the existence of prima facie evidence of offences committed by persons who held high public or political offices in the country and others connected with the commission moof such offences during the operation of the Proclemation of Emergency, dated the 25th June 1975, issued under clause (1) of article 352 of the Constitution;

(c. "Special east") means a Special Court established under

AND WHEREAS investigations conducted by the Government through its agencies have also disclosed similar offences committed during the period aforesaid; ged and in the Cook soull love the same memings at

And whereas the offences referred to in the recitals aforesaid were inicommitted iduning the operation of the said Proclamation of Emergency, delidated taiduring which a grave emergency was clamped on the whole country, civil liberties were curtailed to a great extent, important fundamental rights of the people were suspended, strict/censorship was imposed on the press. judicial powers were severely crippled and the parliamentary democratic

And whereas all powers being a trust and holders of high public or political offices are accountable for the exercise of their powers in all cases where Commissions of Inquiry appointed under the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1952 proinvestigations conducted by Government through its agencies disclose offences committed by such holders;

AND WHEREAS It is the constitutional, legal and moral obligation of the State to prosecute persons involved in the said offences;

AND WHEREAS the ordinary criminal courts due to congestion of work and other reasons cannot feasonably be expected to bring those prosecutions to a speedy termination;

Ancong Special Courts

AVEL 30.3

Part on Art

AND WHEREAS it is imperative for the efficient functioning of parliamentary democracy and the institutions created by or/under the Constitution of India that the commission of offences referred to in the recitals aforesaid should be judicially determined with the utmost dispatch;

And whereas it is necessary for the said purpose to establish additional courts presided over by sitting Judges of High Courts;

And whereas it is expedient to make some procedural changes whereby avoidable delay in the final determination of the innocence or guilt of the persons to be tried is eliminated without interfering with the right to a fair trial;

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Thirtieth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title and extent.

- 1. (1) This Act may be called the Special Courts Act, 1979.
- (2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

Definitions.

- 2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires.
- Silding day of Code means the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1978; or publical offices in the constry and order consected with the constant

- _70486 ma(b) "declaration", in relations to am offence, imeans adeclaration and temade under section 5 in trespects of such offence; at attached both
- (c) "Special Court" means a Special Court established under all dissection 3; repair but het befordings and teganover kanadity and
- (d) words and expressions used but not defined in this Act but defined in the Code shall have the same meanings as in the Code.

was virialism to be because increased to the mantale.

ment of Special Courts.

- Establish- y 1193. (1) The Central Government shall, by notification bin of her Official liv Gazette, establishe an adequate number of courts to be called Special There were consided to a good cottent toggether the damentation of
 - in after was super of all the areas. of the people were a spreduce safety othero (2) A. Special Court shall consist of a sitting Judge of a High Court nominated by the Chief Justice of the High Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the Special Court is situated, with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of India. politice differ any area withing for Explanation. Any reference to a High Court of to the Chief Justice or Judge of a High Court shall, in relation to a Union territory having a Court of the Judicial Commissioner, be construed as a reference to the said Court of the Judicial Commissioner or to the Judicial Commissioner or any Additional Judicial Commissioner, as the case may be.

Cognizance of cases by Special Courts.

4. A Special Court shall take cognizance of or try such cases as are instituted before it or fransferred to it as heremafter provided to have

tions to a speedy termination

5. (1) If the Central Government is of opinion that there is prima Declara facie evidence of the commission of an offence alleged to have been tion by committed by a person who held high public or political office in India Central and that in accordance with the guidelines contained in the preamble ment of hereto the said offence ought to be dealt with under this Act, the Central cases to Government shall make a declaration to that effect in every case in be dealt which it is of the aforesaid opinion.

under

- (2) Such declaration shall not be called in question in any court.
- 6. On such declaration being made in respect of any offence, notwith- Effect of standing anything in the Code, any prosecution in respect of such offence declarashall be instituted only in a Special Court designated by the Central Government and any prosecution in respect of such offence bending in any court shall stand transferred to a Special Court designated by the Centraluz Government. A A STANLA THE HE AT BEET FOR

7. If at the date of the declaration in respect of any offence an appeal Pending or revision against any judgment or order in a prosecution in respect appeal or of such offence, whether pending or disposed of, is itself pending in revision any court of appeal or revision, the same shall stand transferred for transferdisposal to the Supreme Court. I have you set it that the desire a no long process think to be the of the Supremental to the superior of the

8. A Special Court shall have jurisdiction to try any person concern- Jurisdiced in the offence in respect of which a declaration has been made, either Special as principal, conspirator or abettor and all other offences and accused Courts as persons as can be jointly tried therewith at one trial in accordance with to joint the Code.

gradition is not light to the many the largest to did to be a to a letter to gradient 9. (1) A Special Count shall in the trial of such cases follow the procecedure prescribed by the Code, for the trial of warrant cases before affdure and magistrate.

Special Courts or oct

(2) A Special Court may, with a view to obtaining evidence of any person suspected to have been directly or indirectly concerned, in or privy to an offence, tender a pardon to such person on condition of his making full and true disclosure of the whole circumstances within his knowledge relating to the offence and to every other person concerned whether as principal, conspirator or abettor in the commission thereof and any pardon so tendered shall for the purposes of section 308 of the Code be deemed to have been tendered under section 307 thereof.

Polifica with freeze an Herel - markett

ade the rad

laid bine. Parthament.

odem

rules

- (3) Save as expressly provided in this Act, the provisions of the Code shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, apply to the proceedings before a Special Court and for the purposes of the said provisions of the Code a Special Court shall be deemed to be a Court of Session and shall have all the powers of a Court of Session and the person conducting a prosecution before a Special Court shall be deemed to be a Public Prosecutor.
- (4) A Special Court may pass upon any person convicted by it any sentence authorised by law for the punishment of the offence of which such person is convicted.

Power of Supreme Court that an Supreme Court that an Supreme Court to appear to the Supreme Court that an Court to another that any particular case be transferred from one Special Court to another cases. Special Court to another cases.

- (2) The Supreme Court may act under this section only on the application of the Attorney-General of India or of a party interested, and every such application shall be made by motion, which shall, except when the applicant is the Attorney-General of India or the Advocate-General of a State, be supported by affidavit or affirmation.
- (3) Where any application for the exercise of the powers conferred by this section is dismissed, the Supreme Court may, if it is of opinion that the application was frivolous or vexations, order the applicant to pay by way of compensation to any person who has opposed the application such sum not exceeding one thousand rupees as it may consider appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

Appeal.

gaibne i forgot in 100 of the control of t

of ber (2) Except as aforesaid, no appeal of revision shall lie to any court smoother any judgment, sentence or order of a Special Court.

-c(3) Every appeal under this section shall be preferred within a period fe not of thirty days from the date of any judgment sentence of order of a strong Special Court: 8500.00 modes for both of the feeled to retail and a sequence and many and the law of the feeled o

Provided that the Supreme Court may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days if it is satisfied that the appellant spend had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeals within the period of the samp thirty days where the last of the same thirty days where the same to that the same to show a state of the Power to make rules

Special

12. The Supreme Court may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make such rules, if any, as it may deem necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Notifications under section 3
and declarations under section 5 to be laid before Parliament.

18. Every notification made under sub-section (1) of section 3 and every declaration made under sub-section (1) of section 5 shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made before each House of Parliament.

way were to be in the control of the first of the same that he way the

Situity or with an activity of the moon shifted with the contribution of that Antonomia to the action of the antonomia to the contribution of the contribution of the Course of the Course of the Course of the Course of the province of Sacrion and shall be a military and any of the course of the course of the province of the province of the province of the course of the course of the province of the pro

(1) See in organish and dod in it is the pear

4) A Special Court, by past appropriate canded the stangers are authorised by law for the punishment of the often of ridely such octon is convicted.